

"When the French monarch proposed the persecution of Christians in his dominion, an old statesman and warrior said to him, 'Sire, the church of God is an anvil that has worn out many hammers .! So the hammers of infidels have been pecking away at this book for ages, but the hammers are worn out, and the anvil still endures. If this book had not been the book of God, men would have destroyed it long ago. Emperors and popes, kings and priests, princes and rulers have all tried their hand at it; they die and the book still lives."

- Horace L. Hastings (Quoting Theodore Beza [1519-1605])

"The greatest proof that the Bible is inspired is that it has withstood so much bad preaching!"

- A.T. Robertson (1863-1934)

"When you read God's Word, you must constantly be saying to yourself, "It is talking to me, and about me."

-Soren Kierkegaard

"The letter of Scripture is a veil just as much as it is a revelation; hiding while it reveals, and yet revealing while it hides."

—Andrew Jukes
